Measure: HB2572

EDUCATING YOU ON THE OREGON CONSTITUTION In Article 1 Section 26 of the Oregon Constitution, it states: No law shall be passed restraining any of the inhabitants of the State from assembling together in a peaceable manner to consult for their common good; nor from instructing their Representatives; nor from applying to the Legislature for redress of grievances.

Article 1 Section 27 states: The people shall have the rights to bear arms for the defense of themselves, and the State but the military shall be kept in strict subordination to the CIVIL POWER (militia).

With the introduction of this bill, limits would be clearly set on who is allowed to form groups, and for what reasons individuals choose to form them.
