

Submitter: P Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2757

My family has been impacted by a loved one experiencing a behavioral healthcare crisis and there was no one to call but the police and no where to go but jail. This delayed treatment and complicated our loved one's life. A behavioral healthcare crisis IS a health care crisis just as a cardiac arrest is and should be treated a such.