

Submitter: Robert Dyer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2458

I think that conversion therapy has been proven to be harmful to those who have it performed. Individuals should be able to live their lives how they wish to and being forced to have a sexual orientation different than what they are taking away their inherent human rights.