

Submitter: Rebecca Cisneros

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Early Childhood and Human Services

Measure: HB2457

DSPs play an important role in the lives of so many people, but because of low wages, a large percentage of these positions remain unfilled. Higher wages would attract and retain high-quality employees and allow clients to receive the care they deserve.