

Submitter: Jean Erickson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Economic Development and Small Business

Measure: HB2510

Our county fairgrounds are so important to me and to our communities. I attend fairs, attend equestrian events as a rider and a spectator, volunteer for there at the Clackamas County Master Gardener Spring Garden fair. That fair alone serves to bring significant income to many small nurseries in our state. There are many community events at fairgrounds that couldn't happen without them. They all need funding to provide positive activities for adults and youth.