

Submitter: Jen Hamaker

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HJR4

My faith in our elections is declining. Same day voter registration, allowing illegal immigrants voting rights, Election Day doesn't mean Election Day anymore, it should be called election week, automatic voter registration through the DMV that has switched many party affiliations to another party, and now a bill allowing felons to vote. Nope, this does not sit well with me. I'd choose going back to ID's being checked on Election Day.

Sincerely ,
Jen Hamaker