

Submitter: Kailani Brown

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB3223

This is a horrible idea on so many levels. Good intelligently skilled assistants will lose their jobs to ignorance. Teachers and instructors will lose their positions. I am definitely against this idea, it will dumb down the positions for assisting and the patient care and service will be less than.