

Submitter: Jacqui Adams

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2458

Therapists need to be able to treat their patients as whole people. There is no one size fits all approach to treating someone who presents with gender dysphoria. These patients are not always trans and assuming that they are and must be affirmed as such does grievous harm. Therapists understand this. Governments do not.