

Submitter: Amelia Corbari

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB543

styrofoam and single use food containers are harmful to the environment. They harm wildlife, waterways, contain toxins that we ingest, and do not break down. It's time we focus on other ways to get our food at restaurants and eateries and stores!