

Submitter: Kathy Peterson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2979

This seems not necessary as the courses offered at community colleges provides the training that one needs to be proficient and knowledgeable to do the job.

Thus passing an exam assures that the person is, and gives one peace of mind when being worked on.