

Submitter: Jill Jones

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB3223

As a dental hygiene educator, who works side by side with dental assistants I recognize the value they bring to patient care and all dental professions. Lowering standards of education will not increase the number of dental assistants in the workforce, but threatens to minimize the value their role in the practice. I oppose this bill.