Is the Oregon Legislature in denial? In the backyards of Oregonians and Washingtonians we are faced with the worst Nuclear Superfund Cleanup site in the United States, The Hanford Nuclear (Plant) Reservation. Oregonians in 1993 voted to shut down and demolish the Trojan Nuclear Power Plant, located in Columbia County.

Oregonians have always Opposed to Nuclear Energy.

Nuclear energy is not GREEN.

Takes 10,000 to 240,000 years for radioactivity to reduce to 50%. Do research, Hanford [Nuclear] Reservation (HNR) & Columbia Riverkeepers.

For 40+ years the EPA has muddling with containment of nuclear waste and the progress has been zilch. HNR continues be a danger to Columbia River National Scenic Byway.

Therefore, containment of waste disposal must be addressed before any permit is issued for a nuclear electric energy to be sited in Oregon.
