

Submitter: Timothy Storey

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB543

I support removal of polystyrene foam containers in food vendor sales because these types of containers are difficult to recycle and don't break down in the environment. I'd also like to see included that the containers used must either be reusable or biodegradable.