

Submitter: Diane Schendel
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Rules
Measure: HB3206

Whether 16 or 17, teenagers do not have the maturity or life experience to make wise decisions and certainly not in the area of voting! Please think about that fact before introducing questionable legislation. Maybe focus on improving the quality of education so we actually have citizens who understand the immense responsibility of electing qualified government representatives.