

Submitter: David Klaus

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB270

This bill raises huge safety and security concerns with regard to transporting incarcerated persons to and from educational facilities. While I have no problem with online education for inmates as part of restorative justice, in person education should be off the table.