

Re: SB 426

I am writing in support of this bill: it is a no-brainer.

If funding is an issue (as it is with almost everything), then fine the companies that have 'sold' toxins to the schools for the past 30 years.

There are just too many effective, non-toxic (and inexpensive) products on the market to continue putting anything toxic on playgrounds or in schools.

Thank you –

Merrie M Kelly

821 Crescent Ave., Eugene OR 97408