

Submitter: Jess Miller
On Behalf Of: Self
Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary
Measure: SB806

The life events and circumstances listed would confer a change in quality of life for the obligor, as well as the quality of life for the covered children during their parenting time with the obligor. Those considerations should be taken into account by the courts, and motions should be allowed to review or modify statutory life insurance coverage in those nuanced scenarios.