

Submitter: Rick Hawkes

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB90

Good forest practices require proper management by qualified people that understand what will benefit the total ecosystem and not just one segment of the puzzle. Progressive logging techniques and reforestation provide a managed approach and not just a don't cut which encourages wild fires and loss of an invaluable natural resource.