Measure: HB2001

I OPPOSE SENDING SO MUCH MONEY ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF A PACKAGE THAT DOESN'T ACTUALLY CREATE MORE HOUSING.

When government takes money from others to spend on someone else, they neither pay attention on how much they spend or how they spend it because there is no personal skin in the game and that is why there is so much waste in government spending.

Until the over regulation of land use, restricting energy sources and mandated labor costs is addressed, there will be no real visible return on the money spent.
