Lane splitting ah been allowed in Europe for years (ever) and in my opinion it has made it safer for motorcycle (and mopeds that are all over Europe) safer. Now I have seen on fb in the past, people who said "I will open my door if I see one coming in my mirror " which I replied. "I will take you to court for intended manslaughter ". Ofcourse I didn't get a reply. And BTW I will do the same if you do that same type of comments. Let's all enjoy the benefit of lane splitting... BTW this platform doesn't allow me to enter my accurate name.....
