

Submitter: tara unseele

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2697

Reasonable and adequate nurse to patient ratios, which would be better assured with this plan, are absolutely necessary to providing effective healthcare and just working conditions. Overworked and overburdened medical workers are much less equipped to create the safe and healthy conditions that these services must comprise. My healthcare depends on these medical workers, and they know best how to provide the best care.