

Submitter: Teri Gormley

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2697

Staffing levels have been dangerously low and are trending downwards. This is not safe for patients or for staff. I have nurses in my family and they are all suffering from stress, anxiety and depression. Some have considered leaving the profession they once thought of as a calling.