Measure: SB49

I write in opposition to proposing this bill is an emergency. I see no such need to name it such. Determining the "availability of competition-size swimming pools at public and private secondary schools in this state" does not qualify as "emergency". Drought? Yes, that'd be an emergency. Shortage of pools? Not an emergency. If the bill passes and the public should disagree, they should not be prohibited from engaging in a referendum. I'm not sure the bill covers a needful matter in the first place, but I am writing only to object to restricting the public's ability to challenge the passage thereof. Do not pass this bill with this verbiage. Thank you.
