

Submitter: Kelly Coryell

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure: HB3068

Students who have been homeschooled or who have chosen an alternative to traditional schooling and gained a GED should be allowed to graduate I know one young man worked hard and got his GED went on to finish his bachelor's degree and is now excelling Why punish students and make life harder for them?