

Submitter: Michael Hartman

On Behalf
Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Ways and Means Subcommittee On Natural Resources

Measure: HB5002

The Oregon Native Plant Conservation Program is deserving of continued and/or increased funding. The native plant communities are the heartlands of biodiversity in Oregon, and their existence supports the well-being of many other species that aren't plants, including among them: human beings!