

Submitter: Edward Outlaw

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB85

Measure 85 needs to happen. The proposed measure to prohibit the proliferation of industrial confined animal feeding operations in Oregon is a good idea because it addresses the potential negative impacts on air and water quality, climate, animal welfare, worker and community health, and small- and medium-sized livestock farms.