

I am opposed to this bill, SB 854. Students have enough to do to learn the 3 “R”s: reading, writing, and arithmatic (math). Plus climate change will scare children and even college students and they have enough else to contend with.