

Submitter: Shauna McKain-Storey

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB868

I strongly support this bill because it will help homeowners heat and cool their homes more efficiently and save money. It's also projected that helping more homeowners do this will help Oregon achieve future goals in combating climate change, which will hopefully help to avert its most terrible effects: extreme heatwave, wildfires and drought.