

Submitter: Trina Grube

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB869

I am a mom, teacher and human who inhabits the built environment. It is important for us to build spaces that are resilient to climate change and air that can be harmful to humans as well as build and retrofit buildings that have as little impact on climate change as possible. This includes spaces that minimize fossil fuel emissions.