

Submitter: James Hepler
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB2005

HB 2005 Is unconstitutional in two respects. First, under the Second Amendment. Americans have been building their own firearms for centuries. Second, the requirement to alter or destroy private property for some perceived public benefit without compensation, seems to me to be an unconstitutional taking under the Fifth Amendment. I oppose this bill.