Measure: HB2005

To whom it may concern, I totally oppose this bill because it will do nothing to curb crime and it violates the constitution and my rights as well as everyone else's. If you want to decrease gun violence you have to do something about crime and punishment to fit it, make the punishment fit the crime and quit going after the law abiding Citizens and law abiding gun owners. What have they done? The people that support this probably have no clue about guns and what they mean to law abiding gun owners, if you take away our guns you increase crime take away self defense, period. Please quit wasting tax payers money on this nonsense and go after the real problem. President Biden won't even mention anything about crime and punishment in his speech, only thing he says is to outlaw Assault Rifles which will do nothing, He couldn't and wouldn't do anything about it in his first two years in office when he had control of the House and Senate, so what is the big push now? Answer: it is all about political gain and trying to make the Republican party look bad. If both parties would work together on the crime problem mabey you would get somewhere.
