Measure: SB320

I'm baffled that the perennial backers of this concept are the very same people who want to criminalize law abiding citizens through ever more oppressive and unconstitutional gun laws (looking at you, Senator Prozanski). Measure 11 was voted on by the people; despite whatever sob stories proponents may tell you, people convicted of Measure 11 crimes fully deserve their sentence, and deserve to be culled from society. According to the Oregon Department of Justice, released felons in Oregon have a recidivism rate exceeding 57%- it most definitely is not a good idea to add to that demographic by watering down Measure 11. I can't believe that we have to go through this utter BS every year- enough already, and let crime victims have their peace.
