

Submitter: Kathryn Fox

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB1051

Land Use planning laws were created to protect land from wanton development which doesn't protect farms and forest. If the precedent is started to not follow these original safeguards, unscrupulous developers will take over. Many private landowners will suffer as well as the land to grow food and forests to protect our diminishing wildlife, plant and animal species both.