Measure: HB2006

This bill flies in the face of recent Supreme Court rulings, and is blatantly unConstitutional on its face.

It is discriminatory on the basis of age, and frankly, an insult to the young adults in the age group that most often wield firearms in defense of the Nation and State. To deny them their legally recognized right to purchase and possess firearms would also require you deny them the right to vote or pursue contractual obligations. The logic, or rather lack of it, in advancing this demented legislation is both appalling and devoid of common sense.
