

Submitter: Taylor Wyatt

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

I oppose this bill. We need to invest in counseling services to help kid resolve the source of these feeling instead of people with a very specific age a push kids to make a life altering decision. If someone is an adult then they can make whatever choice they want, but children need to be protected from predators with evil agendas