

Submitter: Judith Fardig
On Behalf Of: my fellow citizens
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB2005

Ghost guns are an increasing scourge and popular choice among dangerous people who could not pass a background check. They are too easy to make at home and cannot be traced or picked up in metal detector screening. Oregon already has more than sufficient firearm access by responsible people who can pass a background check. There should be bipartisan support for banning ghost guns.

Judith Fardig, retired Nurse-Midwife