

Submitter: Howard Houseknecht

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB1051

We should maintain the current urban growth boundaries,we will need all the forest and farmland for the ever growing human population!

We need to go vertical and high density with our residential architecture!