

Submitter: Ben Garland

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

I believe that children under the age of 18 should not be able to make radical decisions about their sex change. It has been proven that their mental capacity at earlier ages has not developed sufficiently. Making a decision at an earlier age could cause them a lot of regret later in life.