

Submitter: Elle Bee

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB611

Allowing Landlords to price gauge in a housing crisis is disgusting; hopefully this bill will stop it. We also need public housing to drive down housing prices, force corporate landlords to sell the homes they are currently hoarding at a drastically reduced price so young people today can finally start building a little "wealth" and security for themselves. But I guess this is a good start.