

Submitter: Rebekah Sadler

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

I find it shocking that you would even consider letting doctors do permanent life altering procedures on CHILDREN without parental consent. Especially considering decision making capabilities aren't even fully developed yet.