

Submitter: Jeff Tyvoll

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

It saddens me how children are subjected to so much sexual pressures at such a young age even to make decisions that will last a lifetime and they are not mature enough to understand the implications. Also parents need to be closely advised about any decisions the child is thinking about making particularly as it pertains to sexual matters.