House committee...

People are going to need "their" money to move out of the 2nd highest taxed state in the union soon enough I fear :(

I am looking at spending bills and growing weary...

Knowing the Capitol is getting a foundation that will cost tax payers over $500 Million when the building was valued at $17 Million in 2015 is a pretty hard pill to follow.

Doing a study to see what over 15,000 homeless would do with a $1,000 a month for 2 yrs seems insane considering all the help wanted signs out there :(

To me this is proof that the people who earned the wages , can better spend the wages.

Give them their kicker !
