

Submitter: Tyson King

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

You can die for your country at 18 in a foreign land, you can handle true weapons of war and explosives but coming home you are limited to being able to own a hunting rifle to exercise your rights until you are 21. This is appalling.

I stand opposed to HB 2006 in its entirety.