

Submitter: Jocelyn Swenson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

As we have developed more and more capabilities of understanding how the mind works we now understand that 18 year old persons do not have the same mental capacity as those who are older. I'd prefer this bill was set to 25 years, but 21 is still better than 18.