Seems like the plan here is to make it pointless to buy a Concealed Carry Permit. Why buy one if it's invalid everywhere I want and need to go? Next, it makes hodgepodge of laws. I have a disabled parking placard; a few years ago, Oregon started playing with a well thought-out law, and now where and how they (disabled parking placards) work is danged near impossible to know ahead of time. Does Halfway honor it? How about Bend? Tigard? Salem? Medford? Baker City? Dallas? How does one know? Concealed Carry Permit's will be the same if this passes.
