

Submitter: Randy Allerheiligen

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

The idea of restricting gun possession of person under 21 is unthinkable to me. I joined the military at the age of 17, was trained on many weapons. The problem is not the age, it's the breakdown of society holding people responsible for their own actions. Perhaps you could make military service mandatory so our troubled youth learn respect and discipline.