

Submitter: Robert Winters

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB3390

If you stop trapping in Oregon, those species will over populate and destroy other wildlife populations. Many of the species trapped are know nest raiders. Other trapped species have a huge impact on deer populations. Trapping these destructive species keeps the environment more balanced.