

Submitter: Linda Baehr

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2002

We need to protect our right for reproductive health care. Don't let religion interfere with personal rights and the rights of women to control their own bodies. The rights of women should not be stripped by any other rule or religion. This country was founded on the separation of church and state. it needs to stay that way.