

Submitter: Marjorie Nafziger

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB525

Given that there already exist electric alternatives to small no road engines, it is high time to rid our urban neighborhoods in particular of this pollution from noxious, harmful fumes as well as loud noise. Are incentives of some kind needed such as are becoming available to other electric motors?