

Submitter: Adam Lounsbury
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB2006

my name is Adam lounsbury and I oppose HB 2006, It's unconstitutional. Ever since our founding fathers wrote the bill of rights, we the people have owned firearms, restricting 18 to 20 year Olds to be able to buy a firearm will not stop criminals from using those firearms on Innocent people, this bill is ridiculous, criminals will steal firearms, because there criminals and don't abide by the law. so banning 18-20 year Olds to purchase firearms will not do a thing. Law abiding citizens are the ones that are punished for what criminals do with stolen firearms. Or straw purchases Because an 18 or 20 year old does some horrific act . so have to restrict the rights of everyone else? That's under 20? That's doesn't make sense and its unconstitutional. Actually enforce the laws we have now on the books. We don't need new gun laws. Arrest the criminal and stop releasing them. And actually have the schools report of students making threats. Not just turn a blind eye like they did in parkland high, they knew months before the 18 year old criminal was going to killed his class mates. Thank you